MP 3 Independent Reading Responsibilities

Each night, it is expected that you are reading independently for 30 minutes. This combined with time for reading in class allows for a minimum of 4 hours of reading per week. With this much reading, your goal should be to complete at least 4 books per marking period. While reading independently, you must complete the assignments described below.

Track Your Reading (active reading - conference checks)	Reading is more successful when you hold yourself accountable. Choose from the options below to track your reading. Also, consider creating your own book clubs with friends to hold yourself accountable.  • Create a reading schedule with speed bumps  • Track powerful lines/meaningful post-it notes  • Complete a Reading Log  *3 assignments will be turned in!
Book Completion Requirements (reflection - formative assessment)	It is required that you read at least 3 books this marking period. As you finish each book, choose from the options below to prove your reading.  • Book Talk  • Virtual Book Talk  • Blog Post Book Review  *3 assignments will be turned in!
Literary Analysis (writing about reading)	Create your own assignment where you incorporate an analysis of what you read. You can get as creative as you would like, and incorporate elements like art, videography, etc. The goal of this assignment is not to summarize, but rather to analyze the text. Note, all projects must include at least 2 strong pieces of text evidence! Get your project idea approved by Mrs. VanA before completing it; there are some ideas below.  • Artistic Theme Depiction • Character Change Map • Novel to Novel Comparison *1 assignment will be turned in!
